River cats

Free Press art director Gordon Preece (right) holds a 68.5 centimetre catfish he pulled out of the Red River south of Redboine Boating Club yesterday morning. Preece, along with fishing guide Ed Friedrich (centre), travel editor Paul Pihichyn and photographer Wayne Glowacki (behind the camera) represented the newspaper in the Fish Winnipeg Media Challenge. Eighteen teams from media outlets in Winnipeg and Grand Forks competed in the annual event, which raises money to provide angling opportunities for inner-city youth.
